Chicago, Illinois
March 1, 1965

It was learned that during the morning of March 1, 1965, there was held a meeting of the Illinois CP District Staff at the residence of JACK KLING in Chicago, Illinois.

Those present at this meeting were:

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

JACK KLING

[REDACTED]

LOU DISKIN

b6
b7c

The staff first took part in discussion concerning the industrial work within the Illinois CP. In this connection the group discussed the invitation given to CARL WINTER in New York to come to Chicago and speak to the various industrial groups within the Illinois CP as well as be present at meetings of the staff and the State Board. It was decided that CARL WINTER will be invited to be in Chicago from March 17 to March 24, 1965. It was decided that after this staff meeting has concluded, LIGHTFOOT will contact CP headquarters in New York City and confirm WINTER's visit here in Chicago.

Also in connection with WINTER's proposed visit here in Chicago, it was agreed that WINTER should also meet with the Central Labor Body, this group including delegates to the Chicago Federation of Labor. In this regard [] [] is to again contact [] and discuss with her the possibility of who should be present at such a meeting. It was anticipated that at least three or four people would be present at such a meeting where WINTER would be present.

b6
b7C

In connection with meeting dates for CARL WINTER while in Chicago, it was decided that he should meet with the industrial clubs over the days of March 19, 20 and 21. It was pointed out that CLAUDE, however, would not be in town at this time since he then will be traveling to New York to attend a meeting of the National CP Negro Commission. CLAUDE also pointed out that [] has been invited to attend this Negro Commission meeting in New York.

b6
b7C

In connection with WINTER's visit here in Chicago, it was pointed out that the Board will meet on March 23, 1965, and that at this time the Board along with WINTER should be able to wrap up the industrial work for the District. It was again suggested that a staff meeting be set up with WINTER present some time prior to the Board meeting on March 23, 1965.

It was pointed out that there will be a Board meeting on March 2, 1965 and that JACK (KLING) will not be present since that evening he will be attending a meeting of the nationalities group.

It was announced that on the evening of March 6, 1965, the Board will have a special meeting along with their wives and other friends of the Party. This special meeting is being held for the purpose of giving those present an opportunity to listen to the report of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in connection with his recent trip abroad. CLAUDE stated that he is making this report in relation to political activities in different countries where he visited. The staff felt that approximately 35 people will be present at this meeting and it was pointed out that the meeting will be held at the residence of LOU DISKIN. The staff discussed the possibilities of utilizing senior citizens for various jobs such as leaflet distribution. In this regard JACK KLING said that he will set up a meeting for to meet with MARKIEWICZ

and discuss with him what could be worked out as far as a possible leaflet distribution could be made of the pamphlet entitled, "Report on World Labor Federation by the Trade Union Movement". It was also pointed out that the District has a document which will be distributed at the Board Meeting on the evening of March 2, 1965, captioned, "Congo" which document deals with the Imperialist movement.

There was discussion concerning the reactivation of the Steel Club. However, it was pointed out that since MARIO is now in the hospital, they felt that this will have to be tabled. It was pointed out that MARIO would be the key person in the reactivation of the steel club. In regard to the steel situation in the country, it was pointed out that the CP felt that they had people or contacts in the Buffalo and Cleveland areas, but when it came to a showdown, it was learned that they had no one.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT pointed out that in connection with the possible reactivation of the steel club in Chicago, he has asked to contact LINZEY JONES to assist in the possible reactivation.

b6
b7c

At this time LOU DISKIN pointed out that [] is an active CP member in a community club even though he had at one time been a member of the Steel Club.

b6
b7C

In connection with discussion regarding MIKE SAUNDERS, it was brought out that MIKE is back in the hospital, namely Mt. Sinai Hospital in Chicago. The staff felt that actually MIKE should be committed to a mental institution since in the recent past he has threatened his wife HELEN and also threatened to take his own life. There was talk of the possibility of sending MIKE abroad for treatment; however, the general feeling was that the Soviets would probably not accept him. In this regard, CLAUDE pointed out that there is an individual in New York, [] (phonetic) who is in the same situation as MIKE and that New York has given consideration of sending her abroad for further treatment.

b6

At this time LOU DISKIN asked the staff for additional $100 from the estate left by an elderly woman who had willed to the Illinois CP District a sizeable amount of money. LOU indicated that he wanted this $100 to buy out some other book store that is going out of business.

It was pointed out that the JESSE RICHARDS' birthday party that was held over the weekend and at which CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was the speaker was not too successful. In regard to speaking engagements being made by LIGHTFOOT at this time KLING felt that we here in the Illinois District are "missing the boat". He strongly felt that CLAUDE should be scheduled for more public appearances.

It was decided that the staff will again meet next week and that a definite date will be scheduled, depending upon the work schedule of [REDACTED].

b6
b7C

In connection with having individuals attend the meeting involving people from the Central Labor Body, JACK KLING stated that he will contact JACK SPIEGEL and ERNIE DE MAIO in order to get things moving in the Central Labor Body.

Also in connection with the industrial work within the District, it was brought out that the industrial clubs should get involved in specific issues dealing particularly with their type work.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was overheard stating that JIM PURDY had been transferred into the Lieber Club.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

On March 16, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington) and Harry Wachtel were in contact on that date. They discussed the speech of President Johnson before Congress on the night of March 15, 1965, which concerned a voting bill insuring the right of all Americans to vote. Wachtel said it covered every part of the "battlefront." Both agreed that the speech was the most forthright ever made by a President, but agreed that compliments should wait until they saw what the bill contained.

In considering what they should do in light of President Johnson's willingness to "go all out" for the Negro, Wachtel suggested that Rustin seek permission to speak before one of the Congressional Committees that will consider the voting bill. In that regard, Rustin said the battle has shifted from Selma, Alabama, to Washington, D.C., therefore, they need to get a group of Senators and Representatives to meet with Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) in one of the caucus rooms. Wachtel answered that it could be arranged very easily.

During their conversation Wachtel told Rustin that the SCLC Administrative Board will meet on March 31, April 1-2, 1965, in Baltimore, Maryland, and that King will attend the opening session on March 31, 1965. He said the first session will be held at night and will consist of a dinner.

According to Wachtel, King will be in Great Neck, Long Island on the night of the March 30, 1965, to speak before a group of ministers and rabbis.

State of Race Conference -

By [redacted]

[redacted] stated that there were 48 people present at this conference in New York City representing 29 organizations. [redacted] stated that there were only three reports made, one by A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, another by WHITNEY YOUNG of the National Urban League, and another by BRYANT RUSTIN.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further indicated that ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, [redacted] of Detroit and one [redacted] were also present at the conference. He indicated that all big civil rights organizations in the country were in attendance.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further pointed out that there were three very excellent papers presented, the best paper given by RUSTIN dealing with the political aspects of the state of the race.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that the general feeling at the conference was that action around the possibility of completing the Negro revolution was stymied with lack of cooperation from a greater number of liberals in America and the need of a broader mass participation in the civil rights struggle.

b6

[] stated that it appeared that the best program for immediate action in the civil rights movement is political action, fight for jobs, and an increase in education. He also said that the conference called for activity around independent candidates on a local level.

b6

[] stated that all indications were that the doors were completely closed to all Communists at the conference in New York. [] further indicated that he had expected an agreeable program for the civil rights program, but for some reason or another it did not come forth.

b6
b7C

He said that ways and means of implementing the 1964 Civil Rights Bill was discussed and how the FEPC Commission Section of the 1964 Civil Rights Bill can also be implemented. [] pointed out that this latter section takes effect on July 1, 1965.

b6
b7C

[] stated that at the conference it was proposed that the civil rights organizations work through the central labor bodies in order to win their support in implementing the FEPC Section of the Civil Rights Bill.

b6
b7C

[] reported that there was a progressive group meeting in Chicago to push certain issues in the AFL-CIO.

b6
b7C

It was pointed out that the Chapter will again have to sponsor another affair in order to raise money.

It was announced that there will be a membership meeting on February 19, 1965.

The meeting of March 20, 1965, got under way at about 10:15 a.m. with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT requesting nominations for chairman. [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] was subsequently selected as [REDACTED] for the session.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] then informed those present that the agenda for the meetings would consist of a report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CP National Negro Commission Chairman, which would be an analysis of a political situation in view of the Negro struggle. [REDACTED] then said that GEORGE MORRIS would talk about labor and the Negro alliance and lastly, [REDACTED] would talk on civil rights.

b6
b7C

During the morning LIGHTFOOT and GEORGE MORRIS made their respective reports and in the afternoon [REDACTED] talked about civil rights. All of the reports concerned facts which had already been made known to the world through news media and emphasized the fact that the American Negro was on the move in quest of full equality as an American citizen.

b6
b7C

During the second day, March 21, 1965, [REDACTED] acted as [REDACTED].

b6
b7C

Just prior to the morning session HENRY WINSTON pointed out that President LYNDON JOHNSON was sending Federal troops to Selma, Alabama, to assist the civil rights marchers who were walking to Montgomery, Alabama.

During the rest of the day there was a full discussion on the reports made the previous day and again the facts brought out were the same as those presented in various news media.

Following the discussion HENRY WINSTON told those present that before the U. S. Government had brought the most recent conspiracy charges against the CP, a CP National Convention had been planned but this had to be abandoned in view of the trial.

WINSTON then stated that "we" feel that the Party has a good opportunity to defeat the McCarran Act and that after the CP triumphs in the trial to be held next Fall, a CP National Convention will be held. WINSTON said that after the Party had won out, it would be legal and would no longer be subjected to harrassment by the Federal Government. WINSTON stated that after the McCarran Act had been defeated, the Party could hold its National Convention, project a program of action and find its way into the main stream of the Negro people's movement.

WINSTON stressed that at the present time the CP would have to be extremely cautious about involvement in the Negro movement and he was going to set up a subcommittee of JAMES JACKSON, [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] to study the Negro struggle and prepare a resolution on various aspects of the Negro struggle.

b6
b7c

The meetings were closed with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT talking about his recent trip to a number of African nations.

Racial Matters

A confidential source advised on March 19, 1965, that the West Side Unified Action Committee (WSUAC) would sponsor a demonstration on Saturday, March 20, 1965, in general sympathy with the civil rights struggle of the Negroes in Selma, Alabama. This source stated that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America would participate in this demonstration.

Special Agent personnel, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on March 20, 1965, observed a demonstration wherein 16 individuals representing WSUAC, West Side W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) and Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) assembled at 3:00 p.m. at 80th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City and marched to 103rd Street and Manhattan Avenue, New York City. At this point, the group increased to about 30 individuals and conducted a street rally. The group carried placards bearing slogans such as the following:

"Stop Police Terror in Alabama";
"Federal Intervention in Alabama";
"Protest Wallace Tyranny" and
"Protect Civil Rights."

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A source advised on March 23, and 24, 1965, that a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the Communist Party (CP), USA, was held at the Woodstock Hotel, New York City, on March 20, 21, 1965, with approximately 26 individuals in attendance from New York, Illinois, Michigan, Maryland, Massachusetts, California and Pennsylvania.

According to this source, the opening report was given by Claude Lightfoot, Chairman of the National Negro Commission, CP, USA. Lightfoot mentioned the tremendous significance of developments in Selma, Alabama, which puts the country at the brink of a new reconstruction era. He stated if this movement is successful, it could mean the end of Dixiecrat control of the South. Lightfoot related that the registration features of the bill proposed by President Johnson could make possible changes in the entire world situation. The change in political structure of the South could break the back of the reactionary bloc in Congress. Lightfoot stated the President's action proved the correctness of the CP line in the 1964 elections. He stated the CP must not give up its political criticism of the Johnson Administration. Lightfoot stated the literacy tests must be thrown out completely.

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Lightfoot further stated for labor, there must now begin an organizational drive in the South. The right to vote is the link that can move the coalition forward. He stated the CP must develop a program to meet the economic needs of the Negro community. He stated the CP could not work like it did in the old days since they must work with assisting organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire movement.

Lightfoot stated there is a void in the Negro community since civil rights organizations do not penetrate into the ghetto. Lightfoot also spoke of Negro youth, stating there must be a program to combat the fact that Negro youth are systematically excluded from the job market. He stated the CP must develop a program which helps build a socialist cadre.

Lightfoot proposed that the CP try to initiate conferences in the Negro community dealing with the problems in those communities. Lightfoot further proposed that the CP's role in the South must be strengthened and there be established in each district three-man committees whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South.

The second report was given by George Morris, a member of the CP, USA Negro Commission, on the Negro-labor alliance. Morris stated many tensions developed between the labor movement and the civil rights movement in the past; however, there have been some breakthroughs. He stated the March on Washington helped change the character and the attitude of the trade union movement on civil rights. Morris stated the civil rights movement acts as a powerful pressure force on the trade union movement. He stated there are still negative aspects and certain tensions still exist, but legal basis for progress has been made in the unions. He stated if there is to be solid support, the civil rights movement must move into the economic struggles which will link them directly with labor struggles.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Morris stated the Selma, Alabama, struggle must be supported by labor, and the CP must find ways to strengthen the struggle for peace.

The third report was given by [redacted] a member of the National Negro Commission, CP, USA. [redacted] related there was not an overall national center in the struggle for civil rights, neither organizationally nor ideologically. He stated there are many organizations and many forms of struggle. The character of the forces in the leadership of the struggle are middle class Negroes in coalition with white middle class forces and students. He related the white religious community is more active now, particularly in the Catholic Church. [redacted] stated none of the civil rights organizations have a mass base in the Negro community and particularly among the working class sections of the Negro population. The trade union movement as such is not involved in the struggle although individual trade unionists speak out.

b6

[redacted] related that one large area of struggle is the militants versus the conservatives. [redacted] spoke of continued red-baiting and gaps that have been created between freedom fighters in the South and the national leadership of civil rights organizations. He stated the CP has the responsibility to concentrate on strengthening the working class base. There must be an all-out fight for unity of the movement; there must be a unified program on the economic problems of the Negro people; there must be ideological documents answering the many questions in the civil rights movement; and concentration given to establishing for the North a left center in the ghetto.

b6
b7C

[redacted] closed by lauding the CP's past role in the struggle for civil rights, and indicated that the slogans the CP advanced in the past are now becoming slogans of the masses and even President Johnson now says, "We shall overcome."

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

According to this source, after these reports, various representatives gave their opinions of the reports as well as their feelings regarding the civil rights struggle. This source further advised that on March 21, 1965, the second session of the National Negro Commission meeting was held with further discussions by representatives from the various districts. During this session, Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA, took the floor and stated he wanted to speak on the downgrading of the working class that is taking place in certain left circles. Hall quoted from articles from left-wing publications other than communist publications, which articles questioned the role of the working class in the struggle for progress in this country. Hall stated these writers eliminate the Negro workers, the unemployed, the youth that never worked, the wives of workers, the youth of working class families, and others and thereby narrow the trade union movement and working class movement down to the few white officials of the trade unions.

Hall stated the class composition of the Selma struggle indicates that the backbone of the movement is workers. He stated there are two processes in America-- first, the struggle of the working class for better living conditions, and second, the struggle of the Negro people for freedom. Hall stated the objectives of the CP must be to merge these into one unified struggle such as took place during the 1964 election. Hall stated the CP must guard against the downgrading of the working class.

According to this source, after further discussions by various individuals, Henry Winston, Vice Chairman of the CP, USA, summarized the meeting.

Winston stated he felt the meeting was a milestone in the work of the CP and all ideological programs now have to be geared for a CP convention at the end of 1965. Winston stated the McCarran Act might prevent the CP from having a public convention, but at any rate, there will be a convention.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Winston stated we must establish a resolutions committee to draft documents on policy for pre-convention discussion. He stated certain questions must be considered in drafting such a document, and these questions are as follows:

1. Is it possible to restrict the Negro question from the general framework of the problems of the country as a whole?
2. Why is Alabama the focal point of the Negro struggle today?
3. The document must give the CP position on such questions as are white liberals the main enemy? This question shows a lack of confidence by certain sections of the Negro movement of the ability to win white allies.
4. The document must answer the charge that individual terror or terrorism is a legitimate form of struggle. This is a position that supports the worst enemies of the Negro people. The CP must have a forthright position against violence and terror.
5. The question of civil rights as an issue for the minority and not the majority. He explained the ultra-left has the position that since the Negro people are part of the majority of the world, it is up to the Negro people to fight to take over the country and with the help of the other black peoples of the world, this can be done. Winston stated this is sheer cowardice because it denies the role of the Negro people in the United States.
6. Another question is on Negro-labor alliances and how it can be strengthened. He stated the CP must fight to move the trade unions into organizing the unorganized in the South. The war against poverty should be part of the organizing drive in the South.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

7. The document must discuss concretely how to build the CP among the Negro people with particular emphasis on Negro youth.
8. Something must be added on the problems of the farm and sharecroppers.

Winston ended his summation by stating he hoped the decisions would be carried out.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 14, 1965, the following was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in San Antonio, Texas:

At approximately 1:35 p.m. the San Antonio Branch of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) led a group composed of Negroes and whites in a parade from the City Hall in San Antonio to the Alamo. The group carried a floral piece which had a banner across the front which read, "Heroes of Freedom."
They also carried placards which read as follows: "One Nation -
One People;" "Stop the War in Alabama;" "Negroes are Americans - Let Them Vote."

The San Antonio Branch of CORE was led by DON WATKINS who is the temporary chairman of CORE in San Antonio, and he was accompanied in the front line by G. J. SUTTON; Father SHERRILL SMITH, and Father LAWRENCE MURTAUGH, Catholic Priests stationed in San Antonio who participated in the recent Selma, Alabama, attempted protest marches on March 8 and 9, 1965; [redacted];
Father JOHN WAGNER, Executive Secretary of San Antonio's Bishop's Committee for the Spanish Speaking; MAURY MAVERICK, JR., local attorney affiliated with the American Civil Liberties Union.
Also in the parade was [redacted] of the Communist Party of Texas.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

Source advised on that date that SUTTON is not a Communist Party member, to Source's knowledge.

SA T-1 (1/4/65)

Source advised that [redacted] continues as the main Communist Party leader in San Antonio. He has been a Communist Party member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the Communist Party in this area. [redacted] has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the Communist Party of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas from at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished; however, it was agreed the committee and its officers would continue to function and [redacted] has continued to do so to the present time.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
RACIAL MATTERS

Upon the group's arrival at the Alamo they were greeted by approximately 75 members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) headed by its President, RICHARD L. DOCKERY. During the course of the demonstration, DOCKERY acted as master of ceremonies. Speakers were Father SMITH and Father MURTAUGH who praised the work of the civil rights leaders in Selma, Alabama, and both Priests demanded Federal intervention in Selma and legislation to protect the Negroes' civil rights in connection with their voting privileges.

The closing memorial tribute was given by the Reverend WILLIAM DE WOLFE, Pastor of the First Unitarian Church of San Antonio. DE WOLFE referred to the Reverend JAMES J. REEB as "a martyr who died so that others may have the essential dignity of human beings."

On March 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation took photographs of various persons at the above-mentioned demonstration.

On March 22, 1965, several of these photographs were shown to SA T-1 who identified the following individuals as appearing therein:

[REDACTED]
G. J. SUTTON
WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTTLE.

b6
b7c

SA T-1 tentatively identified one of the individuals appearing in one of the photographs as JAMES SAGER.

SA T-2: (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a Communist Party City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the Communist Party for years. She said she attended a Communist Party State Conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on same. She said she was a member of the Communist Party State Board. She said she attended these State Communist Party conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

SA T-7 (12/44)

Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, also known as LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, has not made her appearance at any of the Communist Party meetings held since early August, 1944, through the meetings held the middle of December, 1944, in San Antonio.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, also known as Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, sister of G. J. SUTTON, is not a Communist Party member to Source's knowledge.

SA T-9 (6/11/59)

From statements made and literature read (National Guardian and The Worker) by WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE, Informant believes they are both communist sympathizers; however, Informant has no knowledge of them being members of the CP.

The Worker is an east coast communist newspaper.

NATIONAL GUARDIAN

"Established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a 'progressive' weekly. . . . Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." (Committee on Un-American Activities Report, "Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL," August 25, 1956, p. 12.)

to be a member of the Communist Party in San Antonio from 1954 to the present time, during which at various times he has held local leadership positions in the party.

On March 16, 1965, SA T-1 advised that on March 13, 1965, it was learned that on that date [redacted] telephoned the residence of a Communist Party member in San Antonio and said that he wanted to see that person at the demonstration to be held on Sunday in downtown San Antonio. This was the demonstration by the San Antonio Branch of CORE and others in memory of the death of a white minister in Selma, Alabama, recently.

b6

According to SA T-1, Father SHERRILL SMITH, Father MURTAUGH, and G. J. SUTTON were among those observed at the demonstration on March 14, 1965. They appeared to be among those leading the demonstration. There appeared to be more than 200 people there.

On March 17, 1965, SA T-8 advised that on March 16, 1965, [redacted] said he had tried to contact a Communist Party member on the evening of March 13, 1965, to remind that person about the demonstration that was taking place on March 14, 1965, for the Unitarian minister who was killed in Selma, Alabama. This demonstration was to take place at the Alamo in downtown San Antonio. [redacted] apologized for waiting so late to call that Communist Party member to remind him of this, stating that he should have called earlier.

b6

[redacted] was very enthusiastic regarding the demonstration which was held at the Alamo on March 14, 1965, and stated that everyone who saw him and talked to him were very nice to him. [redacted] stated that with all the publicity he received as having been at the demonstration, he received only one bad report and that was from the woman who telephoned him and told him that he was doing more harm to the civil rights movement by being at a demonstration than he was doing good.

In speaking about the demonstration, [] was extremely happy that so many students from St. Mary's University took part in the demonstration. He was also glad to see so many Catholic nuns now involved in the struggle for civil rights.

[] mentioned that more and more people are getting involved in the civil rights movement. He stated that even his 87-year old mother-in-law who is living in Alabama took part in a demonstration recently.

b6
b7C

On March 26, 1965, SA T-1 advised that although [] urged attendance at the CORE demonstration on March 14, 1965, in San Antonio, it is not believed the Communist Party had any influence in, or control of, the demonstration.

Meeting was concerned with:

Fund-raising event planned for late April. Because of the intensity of civil-rights campaign, particularly in Alabama and Mississippi, the treasury of the National C.O.R.E. organization has been severely depleted. All local chapters have been asked to promote fund-raising activities to aid the parent organization. A committee had been formed to work on the fund-raising event.

Another "Operation Breadbasket" which is being planned by the S.I. Civil Rights Council which is composed of all the organized civil rights groups. Plans were made to send a couple of C.O.R.E. leaders to the C.R. Council meeting slated for March 4.

Alleged acts of discrimination in housing and education which were discussed.

The only known CP members to be active in the current school boycott as pickets or as workers are [redacted], who is a member of the 6th A. D. Club, KCCP, and [redacted], who is a member of the Brownsville Club of the KCCP.

b6

It is known that [redacted] has gone to Reverend Galamison and volunteered her services in the school boycott to hand out leaflets or any work they have in mind.

b6
b7C

The New York District CP's position in regard to the boycott is that the Party is against the boycott since there is no unity between Galamison's group and the other civil rights organizations. According to the Party, this is desperately needed, a unity between all organizations to carry off a successful operation. However, since Galamison has started the boycott and although the Party disagrees with his idea, they have decided to support him.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Party is afraid that if Galamison or other civil rights groups are not careful, there could be a backlash brought on by one of the organizations called PAT. The Party feels that PAT will counterattack against Galamison's idea and, in their opinion, this organization is one of the best political action groups in the city.

The meeting of March 20, 1965, got under way at about 10:15 a.m. with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT requesting nominations for chairman. [REDACTED] from Detroit was subsequently selected as chairman for the session.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] then informed those present that the agenda for the meetings would consist of a report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CP National Negro Commission Chairman, which would be an analysis of a political situation in view of the Negro struggle. [REDACTED] then said that GEORGE MORRIS would talk about labor and the Negro alliance and lastly, [REDACTED] would talk on civil rights.

b6

On March 29, 1965, the source advised that the CP National Center had paid all the expenses of those attending the meeting since they wanted representatives from all parts of the country. The source said that National Negro Commission meetings which would be local in character will be held later on in the year with the Mid-West and West Sections meeting as a group and the East Section meeting as another group.

During the morning LIGHTFOOT and GEORGE MORRIS made their respective reports and in the afternoon [REDACTED] talked about civil rights. All of the reports concerned facts which had already been made known to the world through news media and emphasized the fact that the American Negro was on the move in quest of full equality as an American citizen.

b6
b7C

On March 29, 1965, the source said that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT during the morning of March 20, 1965, made a report which was later set forth in full in the March 28, 1965, issue of "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

LIGHTFOOT in making the report stated that if President LYNDON JOHNSON's voter registration bill was passed without compromising amendments, a strengthening Democratic political structure would emerge in the U. S.

LIGHTFOOT said that the registration of additional millions of Negro voters would change the political complexion of Congress and the country and that a new political force would emerge in the Southern U. S.

LIGHTFOOT emphasized that the demonstrations in Selma, Alabama, signaled a new stage in the struggle for full freedom and indicated a break with gradualism and tokenism.

LIGHTFOOT pointed out that religious groups were now active in the Civil Rights Movement along with Trade Unions and these facts showed that a new and better relationship between the Negro people's movements was developing.

LIGHTFOOT acknowledged that Negro people who lived in ghettos were not yet fully involved in the Civil Rights Movement.

LIGHTFOOT warned that an expanded war in Vietnam and Southeast Asia would make the Negro people and the fight for their freedom a prime casualty. He therefore urged that efforts be made to end the U. S. war against the Vietnamese people.

The source stated on March 29, 1965, that GEORGE MORRIS in his report of March 20, 1965, reviewed the past history of the labor movement stressing that the Party had assisted in the formation of the Congress of Industrial Organizations. MORRIS called upon the Negroes in the working class movement to form a closer association with all Trade Unions and to be more active in bringing forth their grievances. MORRIS stressed that Negro workers in the future should strive for active leadership in their unions. MORRIS stressed the necessity of Negro and white workers in full alliance.

The source also on March 29, 1965, said that [] on March 20, 1965, talked at length about the Civil Rights Movement in the U. S. pointing out that many and varied

b6
b7c

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

organizations had played an important role in the movement. He said that it was essential that these various organizations act in a unified manner in order to insure final success.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that CLAUDE LIGHT-FOOT during the course of the day made the statement that each person present should go back to his District and work on a program which would assist the Civil Rights Movement. There were no specific directives or programs of action set forth during the day's events.

The source on March 22, 1965, said that during the second day, March 21, 1965, [redacted] acted as chairman. b6 b7C

Just prior to the morning session HENRY WINSTON pointed out that President LYNDON JOHNSON was sending Federal troops to Selma, Alabama, to assist the civil rights marchers who were walking to Montgomery, Alabama.

During the rest of the day there was a full discussion on the reports made the previous day and again the facts brought out were the same as those presented in various news media.

The source on March 29, 1965, advised that GUS HALL, CP General Secretary, during the course of the day made a 15-20 minute talk in which he stressed that a revolutionary movement, which was involving both the Negroes and the working class, was rapidly developing in the U. S. He urged those present to continue to have faith in the rank and file working men, both white and Negro, and asked that "The Worker" be supported since it was an organ of these revolutionary movements.

The source on March 22, 1964, said that following the discussion HENRY WINSTON told those present that before the U. S. Government had brought the most recent conspiracy charges against the CP, a CP National Convention had been planned but this had to be abandoned in view of the trial.

WINSTON then stated that "we" feel that the Party has a good opportunity to defeat the McCarran Act and that after the CP triumphs in the trial to be held next Fall, a CP National Convention will be held. WINSTON said that after the Party had won out, it would be legal and would no longer be subjected to harrassment by the Federal Government. WINSTON stated that after the McCarran Act had been defeated, the Party could hold its National Convention, project a program of action and find its way into the main stream of the Negro people's movement.

WINSTON stressed that at the present time the CP would have to be extremely cautious about involvement in the Negro movement and he was going to set up a subcommittee of JAMES JACKSON, [redacted] and [redacted] to study the Negro struggle and prepare a resolution on various aspects of the Negro struggle.

b6
b7c

The source on March 29, 1965, advised that WINSTON had been concerned about the CP becoming involved in the Negro movement too openly. The source said that WINSTON was afraid that if this happened, it would appear that the movement was CP dominated. The source also advised on March 29, 1965, that JACK STACHEL was to be a member of the above-mentioned subcommittee.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that the subcommittee set up by WINSTON was to draw up a resolution which would deal with all of the aspects of the Negro revolution so that after the CP won out in its coming trial in October and had become a legal Party, it would be in a position to set up an immediate program of action in connection with the Negro revolution.

The source stated that no Party policy of a specific nature was formulated during the meeting and that [redacted] on one occasion during the meeting had remarked that factional groups among the New York CP leaders made it almost impossible to get any program of action established.

b6
b7c

The source also stated on March 29, 1965, that no Party tactics with respect to the Civil Rights Movement were discussed or set forth as a program nor were there any plans made relative to demonstrations, like writing campaigns, or distribution of leaflets.

The source said that there were just general comments during the meeting in connection with the demonstration then going on in Selma, Alabama, and that there was no indication

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

that Party members were participating or plan to participate in the demonstration.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that the only instance of anyone in the Party being actively involved or giving guidance to anyone concerning Civil Rights demonstrations were comments made by [] which indicated that he had first-hand knowledge of things going on in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Urban League, and Muslim organization in Chicago, Illinois.

b6
b7c

The meetings were closed with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT talking about his recent trip to a number of African nations.

The discussion agenda was a main report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT followed by two sub-reports, one by GEORGE MORRIS on the Negro-labor alliance, and one by [] on trends in civil rights movement, all three reports to be given one after the other and then discussion from the floor.

b6

LIGHTFOOT's opening report, in essence, is as follows:

The tremendous significance in developments in Selma, Alabama, puts the country at the brink of a new reconstruction era. If it will be successful, it could mark the end of Dixiecrat control of the South. It would mean more than any previous political struggle in terms of political progress. The registration features of the bill proposed by President JOHNSON will make possible changes in the entire world situation. In 1960, JOHN F. KENNEDY recognized that the Negro vote in the South could hold the balance of power for the entire South. The change in political structure of the South could break the back of the reactionary bloc in Congress. It will be possible to restore what was lost in the reconstruction period. The question is what was behind JOHNSON's speech? There was a recognition on the part of certain sections of the ruling class that there could be no stopping of the movement for equality and, therefore, it was necessary to try and control the development in favor of maintaining capitalism. This action by JOHNSON proves the correctness of the Party's line in the 1964 elections. In spite of all of the problems presented by the JOHNSON Administration's attack on North Viet Nam and his slowness in Alabama, it is inconceivable that with a GOLDWATER in the White House, any fight back would have been successful. It is of utmost importance that the coalition that brought about the defeat of GOLDWATER and is now acting in Alabama, this coalition must be further strengthened. JOHNSON, LIGHTFOOT continued, is a very skilled politician and they would have to give the devil his due. In spite of tremendous pressure and opposition, he has been able to keep the coalition together. However, the Party must not give up its political criticism of the Administration, even through the proposals of some amendments to the bill. There must be no more casualties in this civil rights struggle. There must be promotion of the civil rights fighters. The literacy tests must be thrown out completely. For labor, there must now begin their organizational drive in the South. The line of struggle in the South is quite clear and the North must find ways to supplement this struggle. The right to vote is the link that can move the coalition forward. It was not until 1963, that the northern industrial cities actually got into the civil rights fight. The main struggle in the North has been centered around school boards and education. Now the struggle in the North must be how to use the vote effectively in determining political future. The main question is what happens in the Negro communities? This means the Party must develop a program to meet the economic needs of the Negro community. A big void exists in the movement. The Party can no longer work like it did in the old days. We must work with existing organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire movement. Particularly is there a void in the Negro community. The civil rights organizations just do not penetrate into the ghetto. LIGHTFOOT continued that as far as life in the ghetto is concerned, the problems stem from the economic relationships in the ghettos. Particularly is this true when you think of the problems of Negro youth. It is impossible to continue much longer where Negro youth are systematically excluded from the job market. There must be a program developed to combat this. LIGHTFOOT further indicated that the socialist perspectives of the Party must be enlarged and presented to the Negro community. We must develop a program which helps build a socialist cadre. The role of the left in the struggle is of key importance. We must meet the ideological challenge that tries to exclude us from participation. Negro communists must fight for citizenship in the civil rights movement. Every district where there are Negro cadre, they must relate to the civil rights movement. LIGHTFOOT proposed that we try to initiate conferences in the Negro community dealing with the problems in that community. LIGHTFOOT further proposed that we must strengthen our Party's role in the South and that there be established in each district three-man committees whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South. That, in essence, is LIGHTFOOT's report although it took some two hours. It mainly emphasized and re-emphasized the significance of the Selma developments and spent a great deal of time stressing the potential of that development.

The next sub-report was by GEORGE MORRIS on the Negro-labor alliance. The following is the essence of that report:

MORRIS indicated that the trade union movement is changing for the better in this period. Where there has been struggle in the trade union, it was only a moral approach to Jim Crow and it has mainly centered on small questions of solidarity to the civil rights movement. There was a time when there was head-on collision between the civil rights movement and the labor movement as reflected in the sharp battle at the San Francisco convention between GEORGE MEANY and A. PHILIP RANDOLPH. Following that struggle, the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) was formed in order to organize the Negro workers. The NALC never quite fulfilled its potential. There were many tensions developed between the labor movement and the civil rights movement in the past. Now there has been some breakthroughs. The trade unionist that was in charge of the civil rights program for the union has now been replaced by someone from United Auto Workers (UAW). This new head has taken a more vigorous position in regards to civil rights, and it was he who called for labor delegations to Selma and help organized some of them. The March on Washington helped change the character and the attitude of the trade union movement on civil rights. MEANY was opposed to the March on Washington, but the labor movement participated anyway. MORRIS concluded that the civil rights movement acts as a powerful pressure force on the trade union movement. There have been some significant advances as a result of this pressure, and MORRIS mentioned the examples of the brewery workers in New York who signed a new contract which will bring many more Negro workers into the shops and the equal opportunities pledge that the unions made, should be used to force them to end Jim Crow. There are still negative aspects and certain tensions that still exist, but the legal basis for progress has been made in the unions. As far as the trends toward the Negro-labor alliance, MORRIS said the Washington march made a tremendous stride in that direction. In 1964, the UAW convention further consolidated that direction. However, if there is to be solid support, the civil rights movement must move into economic struggles which will link them directly with labor struggles. The right to work laws must be repealed and the civil rights movement must help in that repeal. The Selma struggle, of course, must be supported by labor, and we must find ways to strengthen the struggle for peace. There are over 1½ million Negroes in the trade union movement. Most of them are not in the skilled crafts. However, they do form a pressure group against labor bureaucracy. The organization of Negro caucuses in the trade union movement is a progressive thing. Some of the Negro workers would not agree with the struggle for super-seniority since many Negroes now have been in trade union movements for years. Many of the Negro trade union leaders are not leaders in the civil rights movement. The NALC did not quite make it because there was not an aggressive policy. The next step in substantiating the Negro-labor alliance is the development of the struggle on economic questions and in this we must activate the Negro trade unionists to play a more active role within the union.

HENRY WINSTON took the floor. WINSTON indicated that he was critical of two comrades who neglected their responsibilities at this meeting. One was [redacted] from Harlem who had the responsibility of being at the Party office to instruct the out-of-town delegates where the meeting was being held. [redacted] was two hours late and comrades from out-of-town had to wait outside in the cold until he arrived. TED BASSETT also had the responsibility to the meeting that he did not fulfill. When he indicated that these comrades should make a statement of apology and self-critically explain why they neglected their responsibilities, [redacted] spoke and indicated he was sorry and recognized that he made a mistake but gave no explanation as to why. TED BASSETT also apologized and indicated he had some article to get to "The Worker" and did not fulfill his other obligation.

b7c

b6
b7C

After the lunch break, a woman came into the hall (white with a foreign accent) and indicated she wanted to ask GUS HALL a question. She was immediately told it was a private meeting and she was shunted outside the hall. WINSTON later explained that GUS HALL had appeared on a radio program called Hot Line in New York, and the audience was asked to phone in questions. One question, GUS indicated, that he did not have time to answer; therefore, the lady said when she busted into the meeting Saturday, that she wanted an answer to her question. WINSTON said that he wonders where she got the address of the meeting, and he used that as an example to indicate the seriousness of the comrades who fail to handle their responsibilities in planning the meeting.

Upon return from lunch, the sub-report by [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] from [redacted] was given as follows:

[] indicated that the trends he would speak about in the civil rights movement would be colored by the experiences in Chicago and would not necessarily reflect the situation nationally. However, some information has national implication. [] indicated that he would request that the tape recorder which had been running since the beginning of the meeting be stopped at a certain point because he would rather not have the remarks recorded. [] indicated that there was no one overall national center in the struggle for civil rights, neither organizationally nor ideologically. There are many organizations and many forms of struggle. The South is still the central area and the North is still a supplementary struggle. There is a broad coalition of forces, the main theme of tactics being non-violent direct action. The character of the forces in the leadership still remains middle class Negro in coalition with white middle class forces and students, particularly in the white religious community which is more active now. Secondly, some sections of the Catholic Church have become more active in the movement than the other religious communities. None of the civil rights organizations have a mass base in the Negro community, and particularly among the working class sections of the Negro population. The trade union movement as such is not involved in the struggle although individual trade unionists speak out. Negro and white youth play a substantially large role in the civil rights movement. There are some national trends that should be noted by the Commission. At this point, [] requested the tape recorder be turned off. [] indicated one large area of struggle is the militants versus the conservatives, and [] indicated that after the Democratic national convention in 1964, the Freedom Democratic Party of Mississippi was rejected at that convention and the white liberal organizations became seriously alarmed. Under the leadership of the National Council of Churches, a series of conferences were held with the leaders of civil rights organizations, all except Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). The character of these meetings was an attempt to control the developing civil rights movement under the leadership of the established liberal organizations, and they felt that SNCC was getting things out of hand. They destroyed the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), they rebaited SNCC, and they threatened to withdraw funds from the project after their

b6
b7c

b6

requests were not met. This policy had almost disastrous effect. It created wide gaps between the young freedom fighters in the South and the national leaderships of all the organizations, until the tempo of the movement and the events prevented public blowups. The redbaiting has increased. There is continuous pressure from the FBI on Reverend KING. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) leadership meets regularly with the FBI whenever they request it, and if too many suspicions arise around any individual, CORE usually dismisses them. BAYARD RUSTIN, at a recent meeting, spoke against wholesale redbaiting and tried to develop a program which could include the left, but at the same time prevent them from having any serious policy making positions. On the ideological front, [] posed the following questions:

1. Should we fight for a single overall center for civil rights? Then the answer, of course, is no. However, [] indicated certain organizations deserve special emphasis. They are SNCC and NALC.

2. Has the Negro middle class exhausted its potential?

[] said no, but the Party's responsibility is to concentrate on strengthening the working class base.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

3. Is the white liberal the main enemy? [] indicated no, but the fight for Negro leadership in the civil rights movement is key.

b6
b7C

4. Can freedom be won on the state monopoly capitalism?

b6
b7C

[] indicated that this question could very well open up a useful debate in the civil rights movement and help develop socialist perspectives.

[] further indicated the movement cannot continue without coming to grips with the economic problems of the Negro masses. [] then outlined the following tasks:

b6
b7C

1. All-out fight for unity of the movement;
2. The broadest unified program on the economic problems of the Negro people;
3. Ideological documents answering the many questions in the civil rights movement;
4. Consider for the North a left center in the ghetto.

Lastly, [] closed by lauding the Party's past role in the struggle for civil rights and indicated that the slogans the Party advanced in the past are now becoming slogans of the masses, and even President JOHNSON now says, "We shall overcome."

b6
b7C

This was the end of [] report.

b6
b7C

The first speaker was [redacted] from [redacted] [redacted] indicated that [redacted] report as far as she can see is an accurate description of the trends. CORE and SNCC in the South have become very closely aligned. The switch from the Mississippi Democratic Party to Alabama voter registration, however, was not a conscious shift. There had been activities in Alabama since 1962, led by SNCC. There was a followup of the Mississippi Freedom Party after the convention, and there is substantial struggle in that State. In Alabama, SNCC is the organization with the deepest mass base. There is some resentment in SNCC since they did all of the ground work then Reverend KING comes in and takes over the movement. There is tremendous pressure on the civil rights groups to become aligned to the JOHNSON Administration. The reason that SNCC has its prestige is because neither [redacted] nor [redacted] [redacted] have ever been involved in White House discussions. Also in SNCC, there is the current of thought that a fundamental change with the social structure is necessary for freedom.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

MIKE DAVIDOW indicated that the problems of the ghetto is a peculiar problem in the North and demands concentration by the Party. The concentration should be on the economic problems, and these problems must be tackled seriously by the development of a program. The march that took place in Harlem in support of Selma indicates that the people of Harlem want the support in their struggles in the South, but they also demand that some action take place in Harlem itself.

GEORGE MYERS indicated the basis of social change in the South is in the economic relationships of the South, and he has written an article which will be in the next "Political Affairs" which will go into detail. MYERS further indicated that Negro labor unity is growing around the question of political action. The Freedom Party of Mississippi deserves the widest support. If the Party can move on economic questions, it will help build the Negro labor alliance. There must be a struggle to get the right to work laws repealed. MYERS indicated he agrees with the building of the Party in the South, and we must consider sending people to live in the South plus financial help. MYERS also indicated that the struggle for home rule in Washington, D.C. should demand serious attention.

TED BASSETT indicated that the sending of troops, for the nationalization of the National Guard of Alabama is a tremendous advance for the JOHNSON Administration. All the while JOHNSON was conducting activities to avoid sending of troops. Now the Party's task is to fight for the bill and to push for amendments to that bill.

[redacted] stated that in Los Angeles, there were tremendous demonstrations in support of Alabama. The first ones were led by CORE around the Federal Building. Later, CORE gave up its leadership because of internal problems. There has been some discussion in CORE and SNCC as to what constitutes leadership. Some seem to feel that leadership means you only carry out what the rank and file suggests. There was formed in California a new organization called the United Civil Rights Committee under a Reverend BROOKINS. It was this organization that called the big march and has developed a sustained activity on Selma. [redacted] helped in the ideological discussions in this civil rights committee to unify the approach to the march. The Party in California has many problems in understanding and developing a unified approach to the civil rights movement. [redacted] also indicated it is necessary to link the struggle in the South with the fight against the war in Viet Nam. [redacted]

b6

also indicated that Negro cadre should be helped to play more of a role in the civil rights movement.

[] spoke again and indicated that the materials put out by the Party have been inadequate. Some of it, she said, has a negative effect. She indicated that "The Worker" sometimes messes up the stories. On the question of labor, she said there is little going on and some of it is late and there needs to be a program to step this up. [] also indicated she feels the Party must do more to present itself to the civil rights movement.

b6

The meeting on Sunday, March 21, 1965, opened with HOSEA HUDSON. HUDSON indicated that he did not believe the comrades who were criticized Saturday realized the seriousness of the problem. He gave an experience he had while working in the South where meetings were organized during the time the police were changing shifts. He indicated that gave them about five minutes to get together and any comrades who did not show up within that five minutes did not meet. HUDSON indicated LIGHTFOOT's report met with his agreement and indicated that President JOHNSON's speech on the right to vote would not solve all problems. He further indicated this was not the first right to vote struggle in the South and gave certain experiences that the Party had when he was in Alabama. He further indicated that the Party must get out more educational material to help equip the freedom fighters in their struggle for Negro rights. He also agreed that the rank and file of the trade union movement in the South is not being mobilized by the leadership of the trade union movement to participate in the struggle.

[redacted] indicated that the right to vote movement can also be extended in the North and West because Puerto Rican and Mexican Americans are deprived of their right to vote on the basis of certain literacy tests that are on the law books. The right to vote bill must get rid of the poll tax. [redacted] indicated that the unemployment rate in the Negro communities and the low income makes these problems of utmost importance in the Party's work, particularly among the youth. There must be support to the progressive parts of the problems in some agencies, particularly since these agencies have been rebaited and otherwise attacked. Even after training of Negro youth by some of these agencies, there are still insufficient job opportunities available. We should think of how to organize grass roots movements in the Negro community.

GUS HALL took the floor and indicated he wanted to speak only on one question--that is, the downgrading of the working class that is taking place in certain left circles. He quoted from articles from left wing other than communist publications which indicated the questioning of the role of the working class in the struggle for progress in this country. HALL said that this is a serious challenge for the Party and must be met. HALL indicated that the authors of these articles try to narrow the working class down to fit their own conclusions. They eliminate the Negro workers, the white collar workers, the unemployed, the youth that have never worked, the wives of workers, the youth of working class families, the retired workers and the workers that actually run the automated machinery and they eliminate students of working class families. They almost narrow the trade union movement and working class movement down to the few white officials of the trade unions. The class composition of the Selma struggle indicates that the backbone of the movement are workers. After you pass through the few leaders of the movement who make up the articulate leadership, the rest are workers. HALL is writing an article called the Labor Negro Community which he intends to deal with these fundamental questions. There are two processes in America, HALL indicated--the struggle of the working class for better living conditions and the struggles of the Negro people's movement for freedom. The objectives of the Party must be to merge these into one unified struggle such as took place during the 1964 elections. The fight against poverty can be one of the main examples. We in the Party must guard against the downgrading of the working class.

JAKE GREEN from Baltimore indicated he had had meetings of the Negro Commission of the Baltimore CP prior to this meeting. He indicated in a very negative tone that there was extreme dissatisfaction with the method of carrying out decisions of the Negro Commission held in Chicago. GREEN indicated that the analysis of what is happening in the Negro field is just not enough. The Party must evaluate its work and see how it can contribute. GREEN was critical of the report by GEORGE MORRIS because he felt it did not meet the problem. He was warmer to the report given by because it tried to answer some of the problems. GREEN indicated that in Baltimore, the Commission has asked what was the Party's status in all of these struggles? GREEN also indicated that there should be a Party program outlined for all districts. GREEN wanted to know what happened to the proposals that the Commission made at its last meeting, and also the line of the national convention had not been re-evaluated. GREEN indicated they wanted national perspectives for the Party. GREEN concluded by indicating that the Party's position on NALC needed re-evaluation because he feels that this organization could be a weapon in building Negro-white unity in labor.

The next speaker was [redacted] from [redacted]. He indicated that he was disappointed that "The Worker" was not placed on the agenda of the Commission because he feels very strongly that the paper could be a useful weapon in the struggle for civil rights. There has been massive demonstrations in the Boston area, and [redacted] went on to describe those demonstrations. Nowhere was there any indication of any serious leadership being given by the Party in these demonstrations, although [redacted] indicated that Party people had participated.

[redacted] from [redacted] gave an example of how the Party could help stimulate activities in the Negro community. He stated that CORE had started a Jobs For Youth project in Harlem, but had given it up after it ran into difficulty. A small group of Negro youth then took over the program and issued a statement to the community asking for support to a program to win jobs for Negro youth. They now have five full-time people working for only a minimum salary, and they have organized a community center. They solicited funds from the businesses of the community and trade unions, and they asked various business enterprises to list their job opportunities with them and they in turn turned them over to young people who participate in the center program. They also made contact with the legitimate agencies that have been in the field and are developing a cooperative working relationship with them. They have organized a sports program; they have developed relationships with the other civil rights organizations, and they have organized the parents of the young people. [] continued indicating that the Party did not have a program for its ghetto activities and, therefore, it is floundering. He further continued that Negro cadre must be released to work in the Negro community, and he criticized the national leadership for not seeing that the struggle in Selma would be a national highlight in the struggle for civil rights. Lastly, he was critical of the Party's youth program in that it did not have the ideological know-how to jump into the civil rights program.

GUS HALL interrupted to ask a question as to where in Harlem could there develop a conference around three questions--the elimination of the literacy tests in New York for voting; reapportionment and proportional representation, [] indicated that he thinks it will be possible.

b6
b7c

[] spent a great deal of his discussion on insisting that we unite the struggle for Negro freedom with the struggle for peace. He further developed the point that the Negro youth had not been seriously reached by either the Party or the civil rights movement. He then spent time discussing the Negro intelligentsia. He indicated that independent of the Party, groups of Negro intellectuals have been meeting and discussing the future of the freedom movement. []

b6

[] has been leading a group of cultural figures in such discussion. [] line is one of armed aggression and works closely with organizations such as Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), the Unity Council and the "Progressive Labor" people. [] indicated that he has been fighting this line without too much success and in one instance, his life was threatened. There must be, [redacted] continued, articles in "Political Affairs" combating the position of [redacted], and all other publications we have in our influence should be used to combat this line. [redacted] further indicated that we should reform the cultural commission of the Party and develop a discussion for an art program. We should try to amend the war on poverty bill so that it will include Negro artists. And lastly, the Party should reassess JESSE GRAY's program and JESSE GRAY himself and make a decision as to whether we support it or not.

b6
b7C

JIM TORMEY indicated that there had been a conference on the upper west side dealing with some questions of proportional representation and reapportionment and it may be possible that other conferences can be organized. TORMEY indicated his agreement with [redacted] report and particularly on the emphasis dealing with concentration on building the working class component to the civil rights movement. TORMEY indicated that GUS HALL's article on the Negro labor community will be most helpful. The civil rights movement has a tremendous influence on the trade union movement,

b6

and the Party should help mobilize workers to the fight. TORMEY continued in his opinion, the NALC should be one of our major concerns. It is the instrument that can be used to move white workers into the struggle for freedom. The NALC is a labor-based organization and in New York, it helped negotiate an historic contract with the brewery workers and now it is moving into the building trades.

ROSCOE PROCTOR indicated that he felt uneasy because of an underestimation of how rough the fight to pass the right to vote bill will be. He further indicated that in GEORGE MORRIS' speech, there was not much activity from organized labor and that disturbs him. He agreed with the emphasis on making a fight to promote the war on poverty and other economic questions facing the Negro community. He gave one experience of how the Party had helped stimulate a jobs opportunity center in San Francisco. PROCTOR also agreed that report was very stimulating and poses some serious questions for his area.

EUGENE GORDON gave a statistical study of the status of the Negro people in the United States dealing with such subjects as income, economic status, housing, educational level,

b6

medical and life expectancy, statistics on death and birth rates. GORDON concluded by indicating that documents that come out dealing with the Negro freedom struggle should include these statistics that exposes the evils of the Jim Crow system.

[redacted] after giving a report on the demonstrations held in Detroit, mentioned the necessity for concentration on organizing Negro workers. He further indicated that the role of the Party must be more than just analyzing events, but individual Party members must commit themselves to the day-to-day activity of the civil rights movement.

JACK STACHEL began to speak, but because of his heart condition, cut himself short and asked to be excused.

[redacted] spoke and indicated that the NALC has not out-lived its usefulness. It does not always have to be conducting street demonstrations to be effective. She feels that because it is made up of trade unionists, it knows how to negotiate with labor on some of the economic questions facing the Negro people. She went further to discuss problems of Negro youth in Harlem and asked that a program be developed to meet this need.

[redacted] was the last speaker and it was decided that HENRY WINSTON would summarize the discussion, which he did as follows:

b6
b7C

WINSTON indicated that he felt the meeting was a milestone in the work of the Party. All ideological programs now have to be geared for a Party convention at the end of 1965. The Mc Carran Act may prevent the Party from having a public convention, but at any rate there will be a convention. If they are successful in beating back the Mc Carran Act, then we will have a public convention. We must now establish a resolutions committee to draft documents on policy for pre-convention discussion. This committee will be chaired by JIM JACKSON and will have the following members: JACK STACHEL,

b6
b7C

[redacted]. This committee should begin immediately to gather facts for the documents. The following were questions that must be considered in the drafting of such a document. WINSTON said the basic policy of the Party based on the 1964 elections is a sound policy:

1. Is it possible to restrict the Negro question from the general framework of the problems of the country as a whole? For example, WINSTON continued, we must expand the contradiction of capitalism and how these contradictions relate to the Negro struggle--such questions of war and peace, the election policies and the Party.

2. Why is Alabama the focal point of the Negro struggle today and answers by indicating that Alabama is the most industrialized State in the South. It has a strong working class and has an indigenous movement staffed by Negro workers with a long history of class struggles.
3. The document must give the Party position on such questions as are white liberals the main enemy? This question shows a lack of confidence by certain sections of the Negro movement of the ability to win white allies.
4. The document must answer the charge that individual terror or terrorism is a legitimate form of struggle. WINSTON explained that this is a position that supports the worst enemies of the Negro people. It would drown in blood the struggle for Negro rights and would set the movement back hundreds of years. Our Party must have a forthright position against violence and terror.
5. The question of civil rights as an issue for the minority and not the majority. WINSTON explained that the ultraleft has the position that since the Negro people are part of the majority in the world, it is up to the Negro people to fight to take over the country, and with the help of the other dark peoples of the world, this can be done. This, WINSTON indicated, is sheer cowardice because it denies the role of the Negro people in the United States and these ultra-lefts counsel the Negro people to sit back and wait until their African and Asian brothers come over and liberate them.

6. A sixth question is on the Negro-labor alliance and the question there is how to strengthen this alliance and here the role of the Party is essential. We must fight to move the trade unions into organizing the unorganized in the South. This will lay the basis for solid Negro-labor unity. We must fight to end all poll tax. We must fight to end all terror in the struggle to wipe out the Dixiecrats from the political life of our country. The war against poverty should be part of this organizing drive in the South.
7. The document must discuss concretely how to build the Party among the Negro people with particular emphasis on Negro youth.

Last but not least, although we are far behind, someone must add some information on the problems of the farm and the sharecroppers. WINSTON again reiterated he thought this was a good meeting and hoped that the decisions would be carried out.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT then took the floor and indicated that WINSTON had taken care of summarizing the meeting, and since he had a few more minutes and a captive audience, he would give a few remarks on his trip abroad so as to bring this information to the Commission. LIGHTFOOT spoke about his travels; however, his remarks were not heard.

Attached LHM is classified "~~Confidential~~" to protect identities of confidential sources 1, 2, 4 through 11. Unauthorized disclosure of information attributed to these sources might impair their future effectiveness and such impairment could have an adverse effect on the national defense interests.

Information copies are designated for JACKSON since general activity outlined herein supports the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) and to WFO in view of the challenge to the seating of the regular Mississippi Congressmen in the Capitol

Enclosed LHM, together with LHM submitted 1/15/65, incorporates available information concerning the New York Committee for support of the MFDP challenge (NYC - MFDPC), and indicates that the activities of this group are directed generally to unseating the regular Mississippi Congressmen. Other incidental objectives of the group appear to be lending support from time to time to community endeavors such as the NYC school boycott and the recent welfare workers strike in NYC.

Of the elected officers of the NYC - MFDP, set forth in LHM dated 1/15/65, pertinent characterization available in NYO files concerns [redacted]. With respect to [redacted] there is no information available that she is or has been a member of the CP. Of individuals listed as members of various committees formed within the NYC - MFDPC, [redacted] were reported as CP members in 1958 and 1961, respectively. Review of files on these individuals reflects that they reportedly have been associated with JESSE GRAY, himself a Security Index subject of the NYO. Contact will be made specifically with [redacted] and [redacted], both of whom are familiar with JESSE GRAY and his associates, to determine if possible the extent of participation by [redacted] in the affairs of the NYC - MFDPC. Contact will also be made with other logical racial informants and security informants to determine the extent of any CP influence in captioned organization. Following this coverage a recommendation will be made to the Bureau concerning further investigation of the organization for possible Communist involvement.

Reference is made to memorandum dated January 15, 1965, entitled as above.

All confidential informants referred to in this communication and in the Appendix attached have furnished reliable information in the past. Characterizations of individuals mentioned in this communication are set forth, where pertinent, at the end thereof.

Confidential source number one made available on December 23, 1964, printed material issued by the New York Committee for Support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge (NYC - MFDPC). This material indicated that the New York Office for this committee is located at 514 West 126th Street, New York City. Coordinators in the New York Office of the committee were listed as [redacted] of the Northern Student Movement at the same address and [redacted] of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

b6

Confidential source number two advised on December 31, 1964, that a meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held on December 29, 1964, at Manhattanville Center, 514 West 126th Street, New York City. Only about eighteen members were present and "freedom petitions" were circulated among those present to get signatures in support of the challenge to the seating of the regular Mississippi Congressmen. [redacted] was in charge of the meeting.

The same confidential source advised on January 8, 1965, that a general meeting of the captioned committee was held on January 5, 1965, at Manhattanville Center, New York City. It was stated at this meeting that [redacted]

b6

of the NYC - MFDPC was in Washington, D. C. at the time. [redacted] of the Harlem Parents Committee, was the principal speaker. He urged the members present to boycott every new school to be erected in Harlem, claiming the children would only be attending a "Jim Crow" school and would be getting inferior education.

The same source stated that a general meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held at Manhattanville Center on January 12, 1965. [redacted] of captioned committee, was the principal speaker. Discussed at this meeting was the text of a resolution challenging the seating of the five Mississippi Congressmen.

b6
b7C

The same confidential source advised on February 4, 1965, that a meeting of captioned committee was held January 26, 1965, at Manhattanville Center. Only about five people were present at this meeting. Discussed were plans to contact Senators and representatives in a campaign to enlist their support for the challenge of the Mississippi Congressmen.

Confidential source number two advised on February 10, 1965, that an enlarged meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held on February 9, 1965, at Manhattanville Center. There were approximately 25 people present, including supporters from Queens, Brooklyn, Bronx and Westchester. Informant stated that [redacted] as of February, 1965, was serving as [redacted] and [redacted] was serving as [redacted] of captioned organization.

b6
b7C

The same confidential source advised on January 19, 1965, that a rally was held at the Church of the Masters, 122nd Street and Morningside Avenue, New York City, January 14, 1965, at which 300 people were present. Jesse Gray of the Community Council On Housing, New York City, was one of the principal speakers. He came out in support of the strike by welfare workers in New York City. [redacted] of the NYC - MFDP stated captioned organization would support the welfare workers strike. [redacted] was present at this rally.

b6
b7C

The same confidential source advised on January 5, 1965, that on December 31, 1964, a reception for Mississippi students was held in the office of Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City. This reception was given by Malcolm X, late leader of the OAAU, New York City, who was assassinated February 21, 1965. Malcolm X spoke at this reception and stated that he is supporting the MFDP.

The OAAU is characterized in the Appendix Section attached hereto.

An article in the "Long Island Press", December 28, 1964, page 2, reported that [redacted] New York; [redacted] of the Long Island Coordinating Committee for Civil Rights, had announced the formation of a committee on Long Island to support the Mississippi challenge. Two members of the Executive Board of the Long Island Coordinating Committee were named as Co-Chairmen of the Challenge Committee, namely [redacted] [redacted] New York, and [redacted] New York. The article further stated that the following members of the Challenge Committee would serve as Chairmen in the five congressional districts of Long Island:

APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

Concerning individuals from the Branch who went to Selma, Ala., it is noted that on 3/12/65 the New York NAACP Branch sponsored a rally at the Salem Methodist Church and at this rally it was announced that REV. RICHARD COX, a member of the Branch had just returned from Selma, Ala. Source could not furnish any additional names of individuals who went to Selma. He stated that individuals from the National Office of the NAACP went to Selma, however, due to the lack of funds, the Branch did not sponsor anyone to the Selma cause. It is possible a few individuals went and paid their own way. Source could not identify anyone from the National Office NAACP who may have gone to Selma.

The Source was requested to remain alert for any information concerning the Student March to Washington, April 17, 1965. He was requested to advise of any participants, having radical tendencies or individuals who could cause violence.

Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools by City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools,
March, 1965
Racial Matters

On March 10, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during the recent school boycott conducted by Reverend Milton Galamison of the Siloam Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York, there was Communist Party (CP) support of the boycott at least at the club level. This source, however, did not know of any CP control of the boycott. As an example, this source related that members of the Borough Hall Club, CP Kings County, New York, were urged to participate in at least one day of school picketing in support of the school boycott. Informant stated that he did not know of any specific CP members who did any picketing during the boycott.

An article in the New York Herald Tribune, dated March 10, 1965, page 18, entitled, "Galamison Halts School Shutdown", announced that the 50-day-old "shutdown" of the city's schools which had been limping along for several weeks, was officially shut down on March 9, 1965, by its organizer, Reverend Milton Galamison. Mr. Galamison reportedly stated that he had suspended the boycott because of lack of support from other Civil Rights groups.

Chicago, Illinois
March 9, 1965

A meeting of part of the Illinois Communist Party (CP) staff was held at the Party office, 36 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois, on March 8, 1965. This meeting composed of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, EARL DURHAM and JACK KLING.

DURHAM indicated he wanted to prepare a report for the Illinois Board of the CP at its next meeting concerning the civil rights movement.

LIGHTFOOT interrupted and indicated DURHAM should also keep in mind that he wants part of the report organized in such a way that it can be given at the National Negro Commission meeting to be held in New York, March 20 - 21, 1965.

DURHAM then indicated that he would try and organize the report in that fashion. DURHAM indicated that he was troubled about how much to include in the report since so much happens daily that needs collective estimates and opinions and at the same time the Party is suffering from lack of active participants so that some emphasis has to be made how to mobilize the Party more effectively. DURHAM indicated that he wanted to deal with two main aspects of the problem--one, some ideological questions now circulating in the civil rights movement in Chicago, and two, a number of organizational problems particularly dealing with the organization of the Negro people themselves. DURHAM indicated that there are approximately 10 to 11 effective civil rights organizations functioning in Chicago to one degree or another. However, none of them can boast of having a stable basis in the Negro community. There is still too much maneuvering and top level meetings and top level pragmatic actions without sufficient mobilization of the community. DURHAM indicated perhaps the one organization moving toward a base in the ghetto is Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). CORE has about three centers going all in the Negro community, and through a youth program have made slight inroads; however, it is nothing to brag about. The NAACP, of course, needs no analysis since most of the comrades are familiar with its status. But the Freedom Democratic Club, although still existing on paper, for all practical purposes, has no affect in direction of the civil rights movement. There is one organization called Student Woodlawn Assist Program (SWAP) which began as a tutoring program for young people in the ghetto based around the University of Chicago and now has approximately 500 young people being tutored with as many tutors and with beginnings of organization of the parents of these young people into a political force. They are the ones that presented the petition with 5,000 signatures asking for the ouster of [REDACTED]

b7c

[REDACTED] There also exists the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) which has beginnings now of picking up activities after two years of inaction trying to concentrate their work on problems of the apprenticeship and building trade unions. DURHAM continued, just to go down the list, he stated organizations like Freedom of Residence, having a conference on March 20, 1965, in Evanston; West Side Parish on the west side, Lawndale area; Protest at the Polls, still in existence on paper; ACT; and, of course, the Urban League. In all of these organizations, DURHAM indicated, a great deal of individual activity but in the main not directed toward the organization of the unorganized in the Negro community. DURHAM also indicated that the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCCO) has begun functioning again and they are trying to develop activities in the main centered on the struggle around education and the ouster of [redacted] [redacted]. The ministers that recently demonstrated outside City Hall for the ouster of [redacted] were stimulated by discussions in the CCCO. DURHAM continued that the Party must have an estimate of the struggle around integration of schools and indicated that in his opinion, the character of the movement has made this issue the dominant one and within that issue, integration has become the main pitch. DURHAM indicated in his opinion, since the civil rights movement in Chicago is predominantly middle class--middle class Negroes and middle class white liberals, they are not attuned to some of the real problems of the ghetto; therefore, emphasis has been put on the schools. A great deal of activity has developed, of course, which must be separated. However, it is the responsibility of the Party to try and develop more basic struggles particularly on the economic front in the Negro community. DURHAM indicated there were a number of such questions that need airing out, but he wanted the comrades to help organize the report so that it would not be too strung up.

LIGHTFOOT indicated that he thought that DURHAM should not be restricted even if he spoke for two hours and

b6
b7c

only gave information and facts that would be helpful for the whole Board. LIGHTFOOT indicated that DURHAM should survey the civil rights movement and posed a number of questions and problems. The same should be done in the national report. LIGHTFOOT indicated in his opinion, the character of the leadership of the civil rights movement in the north is both middle class and student attachment and they have no point of references to the low economic strata. The main question is, as DURHAM put it, is how to move the ghetto. LIGHTFOOT indicated in his opinion, within the ghetto, the youth are the key forces and LIGHTFOOT proposed that he think about somehow trying to stimulate a fact finding committee to explore the plight of youth in Chicago, examine what the program against poverty has in store, and probably organize or help organize a broad united front conference on the economic problem of Negro youth. LIGHTFOOT indicated that on the question of political action, there is a dismal picture in Chicago and he regrets that the Party was not able to get enough money to get [redacted] circulated. LIGHTFOOT indicated further that DURHAM should try and organize a left collective and by writing on paper, indicated

b6
b7c

the following names:

b6
b7C

LIGHTFOOT indicated rather than continue to knock ourselves out to get a broader collective organized without the CP; DURHAM should try to get this small group together and have long bull sessions about how the ghetto can become involved.

DURHAM indicated his agreement and indicated he would check with  who has been working on the broader project and would see how we stood.

b6
b7C

JACK KLING indicated that he agreed with both LIGHTFOOT and DURHAM in their approach, and thought that the Board should take about ten minutes out to discuss specifically Selma, Alabama.

DURHAM indicated he would try and get a round-up of the reaction to Selma prior to the Board meeting and include it in the report.

Sources familiar with activities in the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA (MDD CP), including the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota and a source familiar with activities of the Twin Cities Branch, Socialist Workers Party, who were contacted during March and April, 1965, have advised that no instructions were received or issued locally on a policy level concerning participation in marches protesting voter discrimination in the Selma-Montgomery, Alabama area to their knowledge. These sources could furnish no information concerning participation in these marches by local members of the MDD CP or the Twin Cities Branch, Socialist Workers Party.

The Twin Cities Branch of the Socialist Workers Party is characterized in the appendix attached hereto.

The March 31, 1965 issue of the "Minneapolis Tribune", a daily newspaper published in Minneapolis, Minnesota, contained on page 3 an article written by Dick Cunningham, Minneapolis Tribune Staff Writer, captioned "Two Twin Cities Women Carry Coffin Cases in Montgomery", datelined Montgomery, Alabama.

This article identified Mrs. Kenneth Tilson, 1653 South Victoria Road, Mendota, Minnesota, as one of a group of several women who left Minneapolis, Minnesota on Sunday, March 28, 1965, to participate in a memorial service at the Alabama State Capitol for Mrs. Viola Liuzzo.

The "Minneapolis Star", a daily newspaper published in Minneapolis, Minnesota, issue of March 30, 1965, on page 3B in the column captioned "Suburban Neighbors", prepared by Minneapolis Star Staff Writer Ralph Thornton, revealed six Twin Cities area housewives were identified as having departed by automobile Sunday, March 28, 1965, for Selma, Alabama to attend memorial services for civil rights worker, Mrs. Viola Liuzzo of Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Kenneth Tilsen, 1653 South Victoria Road, Mendota Heights, was identified as one of these individuals.

The article states in part, "Why did they go when Alabama officials said women don't belong down there, they responded by saying, 'As long as they keep killing, we'll keep going.'"

The article stated that these women were members of no particular group but got together through word of mouth and telephone calls. All were identified as having worked on civil rights projects such as food and clothing collections for the South.

March, 1965

In April, 1964, a third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the Civil Rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherences to Communism.

A fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in March, 1965, that Bayard Rustin was going to Montgomery, Alabama, to participate in the civil rights march to that city. Bayard Rustin has been acting in an advisory capacity to Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference).

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

16th National Convention of the CPUSA held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast

during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--

The fourth confidential source, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the

A sixth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

"The New York Times" of March 25, 1965, on page 27, contains an article captioned, "Stars Give Show For Rights March" by Donald Janson. According to this article, a show would be given by a score of entertainers from the stage and screen, to entertain civil rights demonstrators who were on the five-day Freedom March from Selma, Alabama to Montgomery, Alabama. The place where the show would be given is the final campsite (on March 24, 1965) of the march, a ball park on the grounds of the City of St. Jude, Roman Catholic parochial school and hospital near the city limits of Montgomery.

According to the article, most of the entertainers had been obtained for this show by Harry Belafonte, the prominent singer. Among those to attend were Pete Seeger, Ossie Davis, John Killens.

In "The New York Times" of March 24, 1965, on page 33, there appears an article captioned, "Top Entertainers in Alabama Tonight." It was indicated in this article that Ruby Dee would be among those entertaining the civil rights marchers on their way to Montgomery, Alabama, from Selma.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE
UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

[redacted]
[redacted] a former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Los Angeles, California, from 1946 to 1952 who furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1949 to 1952 advised on September 17, 1952, that [redacted] [redacted] was a member of the Los Angeles County, CP as of September, 1952.

b6
b7c

A second source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

A third, fourth, and fifth source have advised during March, 1962, that CP members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 7, 1964, a sixth source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Security Matter-C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on February 17, 1965, indicating that Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington) and the Reverend Ralph Abernathy (Financial Secretary and Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) were in contact on that date. The contact, according to the source, was principally devoted to the physical condition of Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the SCLC). Abernathy advised that King was sick and in a rundown condition in Selma, Alabama, and therefore, desired to get away for a few days rest this weekend before returning to Alabama on Monday (February 22, 1965), where "they" plan to meet Governor Wallace. King, according to Abernathy, desires to go to Nassau or Bimini for his rest.

According to Abernathy, King's financial condition is so bad that he did not have the $500.00 needed to take the trip to Nassau or Bimini. Rustin was surprised to hear the news, prompting Abernathy to remark that King was completely broke. Rustin was requested to raise the necessary money, which he agreed to do, and said he would get the money to King's office or to his home in Atlanta, Georgia, either on February 17th or 18th, 1965.

Abernathy, in commenting on King's return to Alabama next week, said they hoped to lead a thousand or more people on the state capital in Montgomery on Monday (February 22, 1965) to protest conditions in that state.

The same confidential source furnished information on February 17, 1965, that Rustin was in contact with Harry Wachtel on that date. Rustin took the opportunity to tell Wachtel about King's physical and financial conditions. Wachtel said he had some checks made payable to King which he had been collecting. He said one of them amounted to $100.00. Wachtel agreed to send King a personal check in the amount of $500.00.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11, 18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Bayard Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938 as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article reports.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Cost Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1964, that during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly---- openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19-20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CPUSA.

The Minor Press Club of the Communist Party, met Thurs., Mar. 11, at the Estonian Hall, from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m. Among those present, were the following: JACK STACHEL, [redacted]

b6
b7C

Announcements: [redacted] made a speech on this: a dinner in honor of J. STACHEL which will be held on May 23, at the Woodstock Hotel. The Party wants at least 400 people there to honor JACK for his contribution in building the Party and Marxist understanding in America. No speakers have been announced but the committee promises a very interesting program. Everyone urged to write about this event regularly in their respective publications.

b6
b7C

b) Tickets were distributed for La Nueva Voz annual affair which will take place on May 16th.....The Ukranian are also having a celebration on this same day.... conflict....JACK and others stressed that everything must be done to make La Nueva Voz affair a success...A committee composed by [redacted] working on this.

b6

c) 41st Anniversary celebration of The Worker at Town Hall on Mar. 26. This too must have top priority.

d) [redacted] book on Viet Nam....everyone of us must read it, said STACHEL....special discounts for Party clubs... buy extra copies and send it to our friends, our Congressman.. The importance of this book is great, the more we distribute it, the more we will contribute in bringing peace there and defeat therefore the imperialist forces...

b6
b7C

STACHEL spoke with less vigor this night. He said that "your papers, must stress Medicare. He said The Worker has been printing lot of material on the subject, therefore it shouldn't be difficult to translate this in your publications

The other subjects that STACHEL wishes the comrades to take care of are: the Mc Carran law. He showed an ad which appeared in the Washington Post signed by prominent people.

Here it is. Translate it, print this in your paper. Than, as usual, he attacked the Justice Dept, especally for its success in demanding the postponement of its case against the Party. It is pure harrassament, the government knows that it has no case, therefore they want to keep us busy with legal matters, keep us off balance....we can show to the people how ridiculous the case is, how so many prominent Americans want it to be repealed..there is so much that you can say about it, and say it...Although the postponement is very bad, a hell of a headache, this is neverless a victory.

On Viet=nam...Well they triet to what they used to call "retaliate". Now the Pentagon realizes that it can win with that, therefore they are expanding the war. The US is actually an occupyin force...the people there are against our forces...I think we have a better, a much better peace sentiment than we had during the Korea conflict. And what is really gratifying is that many in the civil right struggle are connecting the two situation..... reprint the statements made by some of the civil right leaders in reference to bringing our Marines from Viet Nam to Selma....we must be careful in our attacks against JOHSON.... there are ultra right forces who want to go further than Viet Nam. We must bombard the White House with letters from all over demanding a stop in Viet Nam...We must show JOHNSON that this is the voice of America.....

On Selma....we must stress now federal intervention federal registrars....What is happening there is unprecedented in American history....this, we hope, is the beginning of the Negro White coalition...we must press this more and more in the labor movement, in our press...we have to create a new consciousness.

The next meeting of the Club will take place on April 8 at 85 East 4th Street, NYC.
